This is an eight (8) week position at 30 hours per week, paid at the rate of $11.40 per hour. It is funded through the Government of Canada's Canada Summer Jobs program and applicants should be located within the metropolitan St. John's, NL area.

Reporting to, and working closely with, the Producing Artistic Director and/or the Production Director, the successful applicant will be responsible for a range of duties related to the pre-production activities of a non-profit professional feminist theatre company. Preference will be given to a person identifying as female.

Duties:

Assist with producing for the upcoming season. This may include:

- industry outreach for upcoming productions;
- rehearsal room support;
- special event planning;
- managing volunteers;
- operation of the production office;
- working with a director to get a production closer to presentation;
- other administration as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Must be aged 15-30 at the start date of employment, and be legally able to work in Canada.
- Should have studied and/or have experience in theatre production or a related field.
- Superior written and oral communications skills are necessary.
- Understanding and support of the precepts of feminism.
- Demonstrated ability to work both as part of a group and independently.

Experience with stage management, producing a play, and/or event planning will be considered assets.

Persistence Theatre Company Inc. is a non-profit organization that responds to the persistent and universal need for promoting, understanding, and embracing the core beliefs of feminism. Through professional theatre and related initiatives, we work to change hearts and minds.
